

Excerpts from the critique of the book "Anti-gravity motor"

Vehicle is optimal both from energetical and ecological point of view. Consumption of energy for its moving is minimal (the sources of basic energy are the gravitational powers). It is ecologically completely pure, because it doesn't use any fuel and due to this, there is no pollution of surroundings.

I think that the vehicle will find its practical application after certain technical improvement.

Novi Sad, Serbia and Montenegro, 1996

Prof. dr Bratislav Tošić